

Hello Beautiful,

I Choose you

Everyday I wake up, I choose to love you.
I have loved you, but I haven't always shown it well, but I will try everyday to do better, because you make me a better person.

I never knew love, I never knew understanding, before you. I wish your everyday could be as perfect as your beauty, laugh, and smile are.

You're the Only Person In The World I Want

Until Forever,

Ade
